

The Infrastructure Development Working Party was been suspended in March 2020, due to WODC's consultation on setting the CIL rate to zero.
No more work will be done until the outcome is decided.'